BASKETBALL SEASON TO START SATURDAY EVE

Tonopah will start its Basketball season here this coming Saturday night, when the local quintet will meet the Goldfield-Century Club on its court at the Airborne. The boys are working hard this week putting the new floor in shape, erecting baskets and improving things in general. The Tonopah squad comprises Fred Stoll, John Dymon, James Butler, Jean O'Connell, William Cuddy, Roy Cross, Albert Gilbert, Harold Stoenbury and Jay Smith. The team for Saturday night has not as yet been picked by Captain Dymon. A good preliminary game between two high school teams will probably be arranged and the spectators are assured of as fast a contest as has ever been staged in this territory. Admission 25 cents.

CLIP COUPONS AND VOTE FOR FAVORITES

NEARLY EIGHTY THOUSAND VOTES ALREADY CAST FOR FILM FAVORITE

Seventy-eight thousand, six hundred votes have already been cast in the voting contest inaugurated by the Nevada Film company of Tonopah, in which the winner will be the first screen artist of this state, with a further prize of stock in the company worth $1,000.

Miss Frances Hickok has withdrawn from the race. Miss Isabel Davis is still the leader by a heavy majority, but two other candidates are drawing closer and there is no assurance that other candidates will not enter, for there is still time given for this, while those in the rear of the race may have a big bunch of coupons in store.

However, there will be no further surprises of this sort, as the coupons will expire hereafter the day following their publication, unless they are turned in within that time, or the postmarks show that they have been sent. Let it be repeated that no one connected with the Bonanza may be a candidate and no one connected with this paper may cast any votes. Following is the standing of the contestants today:

Isabel Davis	35,750
Eleanor Malone	19,400
Edna Sullivan	15,700
Ada Murphy	9,250
Nellie Holland	500

THANKSGIVING SEASON FULL OF ACTIVITIES

HUGE RALLY WILL BE THE FEATURE OF EVENING BEFORE BIG GAME.

Along with the teacher's plans for a big institute, the students of the High School are arranging to make the Thanksgiving season the peak of the year's activities.

On Thanksgiving day the student body of the Goldfield High School will be the guests of the local girls and boys, the big event of the day being the annual football game at Recreation park.

Wednesday evening will see the biggest rally in the history of the city. Mr. Smith has turned the Butler theater over to the High School on that evening and besides the regular program the students will supply a few interesting numbers. The complete program will be announced shortly.

SEND COUPONS TO COMPANY

Again the Bonanza calls attention to the fact that this office will not receive coupons for voting in the film company contest. All coupons, after being filled in, must be addressed to Manager James, Nevada Film Company, Inc., Tonopah, Nevada. P. O. Box 993.

CANDY SALE GIVEN BY EIGHTH GRADE

(Communicated)

As the clock told the people of the eighth grade that it was nearing three o'clock, they were seen busy putting in its right place, a large table, in fact large enough to hold two large baskets full of the best home-made candy, one ever tasted in all his life. When everything was ready the small children with nickles and dimes, marched out of their rooms to purchase some of this candy.

During the afternoon, the eighth grade added to the sum in their treasury, about ten dollars as a result from the sale.

The eighth grade extend their many thanks to the children who helped them by buying the candy.

ANENT THE SCANDALS REGARDING MUNITIONS

for thirty years and supplied the greater part of the shells that were used in the South African War, and yet in a national crisis where money is no scare and every dollar counts they are turned down because they would not line the pockets of the stay at home whose only thoughts is "Graft."

The shells referred to in this morning's Examiner did not only cost $18 they cost nearer $15 when the freight is counted in.

This slow grafting process, however, suits their book in one respect, since it holds the American financiers in the most convenient position while others weave the net.

There is another side to the case, the argument of withdrawal of the charges. These arguments may of course be overruled by others not on the public administration. Whatever is done must be done boldly. The government must see its way clear to go for all they are worth. The nation cannot know the estimates that have been submitted, therefore they must rely on some benefactor to come forward in the public cause.

I have explained the course open to the ministers without anticipating their choice. Never was a government faced with more serious responsibility. Until their decision is definitely known there can be no close estimates of the consequences, and the materials for public judgment will not exist.

There is not place for mere clamor and recrimination with regard to faults past and beyond mending. On the other hand whatever is necessary to make the war go better and to ensure that there shall henceforth be more foresight vigour and thoroughness must be done without fear of favor.

Having started an eye opener on the shell question, why not start a few more with respect to the meat contracts with the Chicago packers, and some of the beautiful horse buying scandals.

Thanking for the space, I am,
Yours truly,
DR. MORGAN OWEN

HAS TROUBLES ENOUGH

Governor Boyle, when interviewed by the Appeal relative to the article in the Reno Gazette that he might be a candidate for United States senator, said, "You can state positively and emphatically that I am not a candidate for the office of United States senator or any other office and that I have troubles enough already without adding to them."

SHILLING'S IS THE BEST

If you have never tried Schilling's Best coffee, you have missed rare aroma, something that pleases the palate and relaxes the nerves. This is a coffee that is sold with a guarantee and nobody ever asks for his money back. When Schilling's Best once finds its way into the home, it is a permanent guest and friend. The purity is shown by the government label, the trade mark serial. This coffee is now being advertised in the Bonanza and is to be found on the shelves of nearly all the local grocery stores. Inquire for it.

BABY GIRL COMES

Carl Stevens, formerly auditor for the West End Consolidated Mining Company and now connected with the Nevada Industrial Commission, is the father of a handsome little girl, weighing eight pounds. The little lady arrived November 12 at the home of her parents in Carson City.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The program tonight at the Butler will consist of the Paramount Travel Pictures of South America, both interesting and instructive and a six-reel Paramount Feature entitled "The Spanish Jade" (from the novel by Maurice Hewlett). The novel has been dramatized by Louis Joseph Vance and the filmed version closely follows the lines of the original dramatization. Few films have a stronger, more consistent and more gripping plot than "The Spanish Jade." If the production had no other merit than the strength of its plot it would deserve to rank high, but the strength of its plot is not its only point of merit. The type and the atmosphere measure up to the highest expectations. One cannot run through ten pages of Spanish literature without encountering the very types and the very atmosphere which make this film so different from the general run of plays. The substance of the six reels are as follows: Manuela, a wandering dancing girl, kills a man who has been persecuting her. She is loved by an Englishman who is accused of the crime. To prove her love she confesses her guilt. The father of the murdered reverts and the lovers are left in peace.

To-morrow, "The Fixer," a George Kleine five-reel comedy, founded on the celebrated stage farce, "Hello Bill"—it is clean, straight comedy—free from vulgarity of any kind.
